* Except of pertinent information : The following are Rumanian periodic publications appearing in France:

... 2. "Uniunea Romana," (L'union roumaine) monthly, appeared at Paris in Nov. 1948 as an organ of "L'Union democratique des Roumains libres," founded and headed by Gen. Nicolae RADESCU in 1948. This publication has a Rumanian edition and a French one - "L'Union roumaine." It represents the point of view of Gen. RADESCU and the Rumanian emigrants who are grouped around him in "L'Union democratique des Roumains libres." ...

The following were Rumanian publications in France but have now ceased to appear:

3. "Curierul roman," bi-monthly bulletin, "ronco-type." The bulletin, published in Rumanian, contains articles and informational items concerning Rumania. It was founded by Gen. RADESCU in May 1948. It ceased to appear in August 1948.

* Optional "Courrier roumain," appeared in May 1948. It proposes to present to international public opinion the necessary elements for the knowledge of "the situation of the Danubian countries in general and of Rumania in particular." The "Courrier roumain" owes itself to the initiative of Gen. RADESCU, CARANFIL, and CARANFIL. Only two numbers of this publication have appeared. This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
